SHIRLEY WHITE-DUPOUIS STEPS DOWN AS CHAIRPERSON OF THE NRBHSS BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Kuujuuaq, February 11, 2025 - The Nunavik Regional Board of Health and Social Services (NRBHSS) announces that Shirley White-Dupuis has stepped down from her role as Chairperson of the Board of Directors, effective immediately, due to personal reasons.

Appointed by the Northern Village of Kuujuuaq on November 6, 2015, and sworn into office in December 2015, Mrs. White-Dupuis has been a dedicated member of the NRBHSS for nearly a decade. Throughout her tenure, she has held various leadership positions, including Vice President in 2018 and Chairperson since 2021.

During her service, Mrs. White-Dupuis played a pivotal role in advancing health and social services across Nunavik. Her leadership was instrumental in strengthening community health initiatives, fostering collaboration among regional partners, and advocating for the well-being of all residents.

"Shirley's unwavering commitment and passion for improving health services in our region have left an indelible mark," said Jennifer Munick-Watkins, Executive Director of NRBHSS. "We are deeply grateful for her contributions and wish her all the best in her future endeavours."

On behalf of the NRBHSS, we extend our heartfelt gratitude to Shirley White-Dupuis for her years of dedicated service, leadership, and advocacy for the people of Nunavik.

About the Nunavik Regional Board of Health and Social Services

The Nunavik Regional Board of Health and Social Services is a public agency created in 1978 under the James Bay and Northern Quebec Agreement. It is responsible for nearly the entire Quebec territory located north of the 55th parallel in terms of the provision of health and social services for the inhabitants of the 14 communities.
