

COVID-19

FLIGHT RESTRICTIONS

General Population:

- The strict measure in place (lockdown) is to limit the spread of COVID-19 and slow down the introduction in the other communities.
- Cancellation of all regular flights within the region and to and from the South
- Only reasons for travel:
 - Medical appointments (escorts won't be allowed, except for parent or guardian of a minor)
 - Healthcare Workers and other Critically Essential Workers
 - Cargo
- If you are South or in another community at the moment, you can't return home (except for humanitarian reasons - see below)
- Humanitarian reason, send a request to covidtravel@krg.ca
 - Requests will be reviewed and will need to meet the Public Health and Advisory Committee's standards to be allowed to travel
 - 24h prior to departure, a form will need to be obtained and filled in order to receive clearance to travel from Public Health
- People cleared to come from the South will have to self-isolate, except for Ullivik patients who will have done their isolation prior to their return.
