

FOR IMMEDIATE DISTRIBUTION

PRESTIGIOUS DISTINCTION: MINNIE GREY TO RECEIVE THE ORDER OF CANADA

Kuujuuaq, January 4, 2018 – The Nunavik Regional Board of Health and Social Services (NRBHSS) is proud to announce the appointment of Minnie Grey to the Order of Canada for her devotion and leadership in protecting and promoting Inuit culture. Executive Director of the NRBHSS, she has also been greatly involved in setting up the health and social services offered in aboriginal communities.

“We are pleased to have Minnie Grey at the head of our organization and we laud her appointment as member of the Order of Canada. Her constant devotion to progress in health care and social services in Nunavik is a source of inspiration for us all,” stated Lucy Carrier Tukkiapik, Chairperson of the NRBHSS board of directors.

At a ceremony scheduled for a later date, Her Excellence the Right Honourable Julie Payette, Governor General of Canada, will award Mrs. Grey with the insignia of the Order of Canada, one of the most prestigious civilian awards in Canada.

The Nunavik Regional Board of Health and Social Services is a public agency created in 1978 under the James Bay and Northern Québec Agreement. It is responsible for the provision of health and social services for the inhabitants of the 14 communities of the region.

– 30 –

Source: Nunavik Regional Board of Health and Social Services

For information: Jenny Simpraseuth
Communications Officer, NRBHSS
Tel.: 819 964-2222, extension 229